From a perusal of the Notes of Inspection conducted by the Assistant Registrar, Bangalore, during the current year and the Audit Report of the society submitted by the Inspector of Co-operative Societies for the year 1935-36 it is seen that the society has no fluid resources to meet the depositors' demands and that its working is not satisfactory. The outstandings are overdue and the collections are poor. Further the society cannot under its byelaws hold more than Rs.625/- by way of deposits from non-members. The continuance of the temple deposit in the society to such a large extent is thus neither permissible nor desirable.

Registrar in charge.

Returned with compliments.

If approved, the M.C will be informed accordingly. The amount may perhaps be allowed to be kept as Fixed Deposit, in any Cooperative Society in Bangalore city, where the Amildar Bangalore Taluk in whose name it is to be held in deposit, besides, such as, the Central Cooperative Bank, the City Cooperative Bank Ltd or the South Cooperative Society Ltd

b) In view of the opinion expressed by the Registrar of Cooperative Societies the recommendation of the M.C. that the amount may be continued to be in Sri Viswanathaswamy Deposit in the Vyalikaval Co-op Agri Society

GENL. & REV. SECRETARIAT
30 NOV. 1936

SIR,

Surplus amount of Sri Venugopalaswamy Temple at Yelahanka - investment in Co-operative Society.

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No.CB-877/36-37 dated 9th November 1936 received from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District on the above subject, I have the honor to state that a sum of Rs.1,421 belonging to Sri Venugopalaswamy temple at Yelahanka has been invested in the Sri Venugopalaswami Co-operative Society at the place. As it was irregular to keep the amount in Co-operative Societies not authorised by Government, the Deputy Commissioner was requested to withdraw the amount and to deposit the same in the S.B. Account in the name of the Amildar.

2. The devotees of the temple having petitioned this office for the continuance of the amount in the Society, a report was called for from the Deputy Commissioner. From the records submitted by the Deputy Commissioner, it is seen that the amount in deposit represents the subscriptions collected by the devotees to supplement the cost of the daily worship in the temple, that the Society has been paying Rs.7 interest on the deposit as against 2½% in the S.B. Account, and that the Dharmadarsis of the temple are not in favour of depositing the amount in the S.B. Account. The local officers and the Deputy Commissioner recommend for the continuance of the amount in the Society.

3. As per Section 23, Clause (b) of the Religious and Chari Institutions Regulation of 1927, funds belonging to Muzrai Instituti not required for immediate use, may be invested in Co-operative Societies approved by Government. As the Co-operative Society at Yelahanka does not seem to have approved by Government, I request that sanction of Govern ment may kindly be obtained to continue the amount in deposit in the Society at Yelahanka.

4. The file of records on the subject is enclosed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Bangalore, Dated, 4th January 1937.

From

The General Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

The Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.P.C.99/36-37, dated 28th November 1936 regarding the investment of the surplus amount of Sri Venugopalaswamy temple at Yelahanka in the Local Co-operative Society I am directed to state that the Registrar of Co-operative Societies who was consulted in the matter has reported that this Society has no fluid resources to meet the depositors' demands and that its working is not satisfactory. The outstandings of the Society are stated to be overdue and the collections are poor. Further it is reported that the Society cannot under its byelaws hold more than Rs. 625/- by way of deposits from non-members. The continuance of the temple deposit in the Society to such a large extent is therefore neither permissible nor desirable.

In these circumstances, I am to state that your proposal to continue having the said amount held in deposit in the said Yelahanka Society cannot be accepted and to request you to be so good as to take necessary action for depositing the amount in the Government Savings Bank account in the name of the Amildar, Bangalore Taluk.

The enclosures received with your letter under advertence are herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for General Secretary to Government.
